

NEWPORT TO BALLARAT BY STEAM TRAIN FRIDAY 6th MAY 2016

Join Steamrail for a relaxed afternoon and relive steam train travel on Steamrail's Vintage Train from Newport Station to Ballarat on Friday 6th May 2016.

Departing Newport Station at 2.44pm, The Vintage Train, hauled by the 127 year old steam engine Y112 and the young 60 year old K190, in its new LMS Red livery, will travel the original historic rail line to Ballarat via Geelong.

Arriving into Ballarat at 7.05pm there is time to grab dinner at the station's refreshment room or dine at one of the nearby hotels or restaurants before catching the regular V/Line train back to Melbourne.

Alternatively stay in Ballarat for the weekend for the Ballarat Heritage festival and catch The Vintage Train back to Melbourne on Sunday afternoon (see Ballarat to Melbourne by Steam Train) or the V/Line services on either Saturday or Sunday.

STEAM TRAIN FARE TO BALLARAT:

Adults	$50
Seniors	$45
Child (3 to 16 years)	$30
SRV Members	$40
(Member discount vouchers do not apply)

Dinner and the return V/Line fare are not included in the above fares and should be arranged separately. Myki maybe used on the V/Line train.

The steam train is operating as a transfer train to Ballarat for the Ballarat Heritage Weekend. There is no kiosk or food service on the train. Passengers are advised to bring their own refreshments. Alcohol is not permitted.
